From the Desk of our Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor

Our sacred motherland is the land of religion and philosophy along with the birthplace of patriotic colossal. To pay honour to the values of patriotism and self esteem, along with nurturing the same, the University has been named as 'Sidho- Kanho-Birsha University' in commemoration of three gallant patriots Sidho and Kanho Murmu who ignited the flicker of peasant movement in 1855 movement during the late nineteenth century.

Keeping equivalence with the expansion of Arts, Science and Technology all around the globe, Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University is committed to cater to its learners in a holistic manner to transform them into a full functioning individual with the exposure to the packed potentialities for the nation as a whole. Education opens the doors of the mind; the tracks beyond the formal schooling unlock the additional windows of intellects. With the patronage of the Higher Education Department, Government of West Bengal the University has also made an allowance to honour and uphold the local cultural heritage, societal demands and historical relics of and around Purulia. In this regard, we have introduced Chhau, Jhumur and Lac cultivation as a course with other main stream course curriculum .

Within a short span of time Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University has positioned itself in a momentous site in the educational map. It is dedicated to bequeath its learners with admittance to higher education through quality teaching, learning and research progression and is also marching forward to organize its pupil to face challenges in life to assume responsibilities and fight for justice to hold their heads high in the nation.

Prof. Dipak Ranjan Mandal
Vice-Chancellor

About us

Sidho-Kanho-Birsha took a first gently but courageous step out of its chrysalis in the November of 2010, when it started out on its academic odyssey in Purulia, an area generally thought to be a back-of-the-beyond place of the benighted Jungle Mahal. Bolstered by the Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University Act brought forth by the West Bengal Legislative Assembly, the university dreams big of disseminating the cognitive ambience, thereby wafting itself gradually to the pinnacle of academic excellence.

The objective of this university is to carry the torch of higher education into the very interiors of the far-flung district of West Bengal, thereby providing the opportunity of creating a confluence of the rich local cultural heritage of the place and the global trend of technological know-how, which could result in an awe-inspiring ‘globalisation’ of the crème de la crème of the education system. In doing so, the approach of the University has been to evolve policies and programmes which will make Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University a meaningful contributor to the national resources in higher education rather than a mere quantitative expansion of facilities which already exist.

The university boasts of Post Graduate courses in 18 subjects. It intends to expand its purview a lot more in the near future.

Chhou—the rich cultural heritage of Purulia, has been introduced as a Certificate course to give the culture of the land a shot in the arm.

Study in Lac/Shellac Culture is being enthused upon through.....

In short, Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University is doing its best to make the most of the intellectual human resources in its domain, so as to live up to its motto to the hilt—‘Sa No Buddhya ...SubhayaSamyunaktu’—let the Almighty bestow on us blessed thought.
