1. The Concept of Open University

The pedagogy of Open Learning places the primary responsibility of acquiring knowledge on the learner. On its part the University facilitates a flexible learning schedule, provides a kitty of advanced support services and offers accreditation by way of examinations.

The Open University represents an alternative approach to higher learning. It stands apart from a highly formal, institutionalized and centrally administered system of education. Its philosophy is built around the principles of universality, flexibility and innovativeness. Its ideas and institutions, its methods and procedures are all shaped accordingly. Conceptually, it can be viewed as a system drawing upon the best elements in formal and non-formal education.

The 'openness' consists of a variety of features.

First, it offers easy access to the learners. The entry requirement is not too exacting. A genuine interest in picking up knowledge is all that it expects. Consequently, it would try to embrace as many learners as possible.

Second, its territorial reach is visibly wide. It aims at bringing education to the doorstep of the learner, wherever he or she may be. Various methods of communication and contact are used for this purpose. The classroom of the University, thus, is as wide as the entire land it seeks to serve.

Third, the Open University is learner-oriented. It devises its programmes and methods of teaching to suit the needs of the learners. Their options and inclinations are given due priorities. A variety of programmes—short-term or long-term, liberal or professional can be pursued under the University.

Fourth, it believes in fair distribution of quality education, teaching aid, consultancy and study materials. Whatever resources the University has been made evenly available to all learners wherever or whoever he or she might be. It eliminates variations and discrimination.

Fifth, its administration is decentralized. In promoting Distance Education, the University creates a wide network of Learner Support Centre. Learners need only to come to the nearest available centre for collecting all information, completing all formalities, discussing their academic issues and appearing for evaluation of their work at intervals chosen by them.

Sixth, learner assessment under Open University is based on continuous assessment and credit system. It does not require learners to get bogged down in one final examination. One can study at one's own pace.

It short, the Open University seeks to open up the treasure house of knowledge to the maximum number of users. Thereby it would enhance their skills for productivity and further learning. Socially, too, the University promises steady empowerment of those who suffered backwardness for want of these skills. Considering the current trends all over the world, the Open University is going not only to complement the conventional system of higher education but may soon occupy the centre stage also in developing countries where the resources do not measure up to the vastness of the clientele.

15. Self-Learning Materials

The University provides its learners Self Learning Materials (SLM) in printed and/or digital form for all subjects, to be studied and learnt by them at their convenience. An enrolled learner can collect his/ her SLM from the respective Learner Support Centre by producing RECEIPT OF SLMs as and when issued by the University. The softcopy of the SLMs are available in the NSOU website: www.wbnsou.ac.in. Learners can download the softcopy.

16. Methods of Instruction

The University makes use of several methods to provide maximum possible exposure of the learners to the course-contents and to each instructional programme. To start with, printed SLMs (Self Learning Materials) packages and contact programmes involving face-to-face interaction with academic counsellors are available. Moreover, Audio-visual presentations, Teleconferences and occasional discussion sessions through Web TV and Web Radio channels have been introduced.

Personal Contact Programme (PCP): Each accredited Learner Support Centres are organise PCP Sessions on weekends/holidays and notifies the same to the learners. Learners are recommended to read their SLMs thoroughly before participating in the PCP session to find it immensely useful. For each 6/2 credit of a theoretical course there will be maximum 18 hours / 6 hours PCP sessions respectively. In addition to these face to face PCP, some online sessions will also be arranged by the University. During these sessions, academic counsellors will help the learners with their study. Attendance at PCPs are optional for most courses, unless otherwise specified.

Practical Session: Practical Sessions or Laboratory Counselling-cum-evaluation Sessions (LCES), for Core and Discipline Specific Elective course of science stream, are arranged in some selected centres by the University for the learners who have enrolled for the particular subjects. Centres for practical work will be allotted by the University. There are at most two practical courses in the three odd semester (I, III and V) for the three years of study of each honours science subject. The practical work for Core and Discipline Specific Elective course is generally arranged during puja vacation/ post puja holidays as far as practicable for 12 (twelve) days from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. each day. Regular attendance throughout the practical session by each and every learner are mandatory. A circular with details of venue and schedule for practical sessions will be sent to the respective Learner Support Centre and also published in our official website (www.wbnsou.ac.in).

Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs): To enhance digital learning in the country, Government has approved National Mission on Education through Information and Communication Technology (NME-ICT) in the year 2009, to provide high quality personalized and interactive knowledge modules over the internet/intranet for all learners in higher education institutions in anytime anywhere mode. Through this scheme the Ministry is providing connectivity to all colleges and Universities and providing high quality e-content free of cost.

The main aim of MOOCs is to provide new opportunities to a massive number of learners to attend free online courses from anywhere all over the world. This will enrich the learning experience by using audio-video and multi-media and state of the art pedagogy/ technology. In order to ensure best quality contents, the SWAYAM has 4 quadrants:

- a) Video lecture – Q1
- b) E-content: Specially prepared reading material that can be downloaded / printed – Q2
- c) Self-assessment tests through tests and quizzes – Q3
- d) An online discussion forum for clearing the doubts – Q4

Netaji Subhas Open University proposes to adopt MOOCs for some course of DSE/ GE courses under CBCS scheme as a preference as per UGC guidelines. Learners willing to choose MOOCs course as an option of study are advise to visit University official website for detailed instruction. In this regard, enrolled learners may communicate with Concerned School of Studies for guidance during their study of the programme.

17. Medium of Instruction

The Self Learning Materials (SLMs) for different courses (except for Bengali) are available in Bengali/English language (see respective programme structure). However, as a State level endeavour, teaching learning process for Under Graduate degree programmes are done in Bengali medium. A Learner is free to write answers for home assignments and in term-end examinations in Bengali/ English. But, in such cases mixing of language that is some part in Bengali and some part in English is not acceptable.

18. Evaluation Process

The Evaluation of each subject will be made in following ways:

a) Assignment / Internal Assessment/ Continuous Assessment / Formative Assessment:

Assignments have a very important role to play in the teaching-learning process in distance education. There may be long spatial distance between a learner and distance education institution which is bridged by sending assignments to the learners and requiring them to reply the questions there in. The learners answer the assignment questions and send back which are then evaluated by the evaluators/ academic counsellors/distance teachers. The assignment responses reflect what the learners have understood and learnt. The assignments are then returned to the learners with the comments/remarks of the evaluator so that the assignment answers may serve the purpose of providing feedback to the learners and inform them their strengths and weaknesses. These comments carry the meaningful and constructive suggestions of the evaluator which further form the bases of successful learning. Thus, the assignments serve the purpose of two-way communication between the learner and evaluator/academic counsellors/distance teacher despite physical distances between the two.

Learners will be required to submit assignment courses for each subject and the credit obtained on evaluation of those assignment courses will be entered into his/her individual record of performance. This will constitute 30% (maximum) of the total credit points in the subjects as per University Grants Commission (Open and Distance Learning Programmes and Online Programmes) Regulations, 2020. All the credit points secured by the learners will be progressively entered into record.

Every learner is required to submit the assignment courses before each Term-end Examination which is due at the end of each semester. But in no case a learner shall be allowed to fill in the Application Form to sit for the examination if he/she has not submitted assignment course within the due date as announced by the Examination Department of the University. The evaluated assignment answer booklet will be returned to the learners.

In practical course of Science stream, there is no assignment.

NSOU website: You may also access all relevant information and assignments from the University website at www.wbnsou.ac.in.

b) Term-end Examinations:

Minimum 70% of the total credit points of the course (except practical course where it is 100%) would be reserved for Term-end Examination as per University Grants Commission (Open and Distance Learning Programmes and Online Programmes) Regulations, 2020.

Minimum qualifying marks in each course is 30% (Term End Examination Marks + Assignment Marks).

c) Practical Examination / Laboratory Counselling-cum-Evaluation Sessions (LCES) for Lab based subjects:

Practical Sessions or Laboratory Counselling-cum-Evaluation Session (LCES), for Core and Discipline Specific Elective courses of Science stream, are arranged by the University for the learners who have enrolled for the particular programme. Centre for practical work will be allotted by the University.

The practical work for Core and Discipline Specific Elective courses are generally arranged as follows:

Sl. No.	Day	Activities	Marks
1	1 st Day	Introduction	0
2	2 nd to 11 th Day	Continuous Practical Session	70%
3	12 th Day	Practical Examination	30%

A circular with details of venue and schedule for practical sessions will be sent to the respective Learner Support Centres and also published in our official website (www.wbnsou.ac.in) before the commencement of LCES.

Minimum qualifying marks in each practical course is 30% (Term End Examination Marks).

d) Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs):

Learners choosing MOOCs under SWAYAM as an option of study are advised to visit University official website for detailed instruction. University will duly frame Credit Transfer Policy of Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) following UGC guidelines. Modalities related to evaluation process will be notified by the concerned School of Studies.

19. Evaluation Method

In Open and Distance Learning (ODL) mode of education in case of theoretical courses the Learners would be subject to continuous evaluation in the form of Assignments. In compiling results maximum 30% will come from the Assignment evaluation (A) and minimum 70% from the performance in the Term-End examination (B) as per University Grants Commission (Open and Distance Learning Programmes and Online Programmes) Regulations, 2020 (for details, please see respective programme structure). However, in case of Practical courses in Science subjects, 100% will come from the performance in Term-End Examinations (LCES).

Continuous evaluation of theoretical courses is made on the basis of assignment which every learner is required to submit before each Term-end Examination.

Term-end Examinations are held at the end of every semester. Learners who intend to appear at a Term-end Examination are required to fill in application forms as per notification issued by the Examination Department of the University (134/1, Meghnad Saha Sarani, Kolkata-700 029) from time to time.

It is also noteworthy that the marks obtained in each course would be a summation of Assignment Marks (A) and Term End-Exam Marks (B) except practical courses.

One credit is considered to be equivalent to 30 (thirty) hours of study time (which includes all the learning activities) devoted by the learner her/ himself.

The details of the credit given below:

Total credit: 140 or 1800 marks

Course component wise division of credit points under CBCS system:

NSOU always endeavours to adhere to the academic calendar for conducting examinations and publishing the results on top most priority. However, being an Open University the functions of NSOU depend a lot on the participation of the academic counsellors and secretarial staff of the Learner Support Centre which are located in the colleges affiliated to the other State Aided Universities of West Bengal. In case of some unlikely events functioning of the Learner Support Centres may be affected which is beyond the control of NSOU. These may lead to deviations from the academic calendar under the existing system. Such unintentional deviations cannot be totally ruled out. In such cases NSOU will always strive to minimise such delays. Despite its best efforts, NSOU, however, cannot guarantee finalization of the results in some cases. In those cases pending finalization of the result of the last examination, before the commencement of the next examination, the learners concerned may be advised to fill in the application form for examination within the scheduled date. But in case a learner is found not to have cleared the examination after filling up of the application form for the next examination, the application shall be treated as cancelled.

21. Grading System

Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA): The SGPA (Semester Grade Point Average) and CGPA (Cumulative Grade Point Average) pattern suggested by UGC will be followed to award Grades to the learners.

Semester Grade point Average (SGPA):

The semester grade point average (SGPA) will be the weightage average of the numerical grade points obtained in all the courses of the given semester, where weights refers to the credits assign to the concern courses. If the numerical grade points obtained by a learner in different courses of a semester are denoted by P_i and the credit of the corresponding courses are denoted by C_i , the SGPA will be $[\sum(P_i \times C_i) / \sum C_i]$ where $i=1$ to n , and n - no. of courses in the semester. The SGPA shall be shown in the marksheet upto the 3rd decimal point.

Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA):

Cumulative Grade Point average (CGPA) over six semesters shall be the weighted average of the six SGPA's.

$CGPA = (\sum(SGPA_j \times C_j) / \sum C_j)$ where $j=1$ to 6. CGPA shall be calculated and shown up to three decimal places. $SGPA_j$ is the SGPA of the j th semester ($j=1$ to 6) and C_j is the total credit of j th semester used for Grade Point Calculation.

A 10-point grading system shall be followed for the purpose of Grade Point Calculation, as shown below:

Percentage of Marks	Numerical Grade Points	Grade Letter	CGPA	Remarks
≥ 90% to 100%	9.0-10	O	9.000-10.000	Outstanding
≥80% but < 90%	8.0-8.9	A+	8.000-8.999	Excellent
≥70% but <80%	7.0-7.9	A	7.000-7.999	Very Good
≥60% but <70%	6.0-6.9	B+	6.000-6.999	Good
≥50% but <60%	5.0-5.9	B	5.000-5.999	Average
≥40% but <50%	4.0-4.9	C	4.000-4.999	Fair
≥30% but <40%	3.0-3.9	D	3.000-3.999	Satisfactory
<30%	0	F	0.000-2.999	Fail

Numerical Grade Point shall not be calculated in respect of a failed course.

The multiplicative factors shall be 0.10 for all grades for the purpose of calculating numerical grade points.

Example:

If the learner secures $P\%$, where $P \geq 30$, his/her grade point will be

$$[3.0 + \{(P-30) \times 0.1\}] \text{ or simply } 30 \times 0.10 = 3$$

If a learner scores 52% in a particular course, his/her grade point for course will be

$$(3.00 + 0.1 \times 22) = 5.20 \text{ or simply, } 52 \times 0.10 = 5.2$$

Both SGPA and CGPA will be rounded off to the 3rd place of the decimal and will be shown as such on the grade sheet. The grade sheet issued at the end of each semester shall include the total marks obtained in each course (SGPA will be calculated for semester only after clearing all courses by a learner in that particular semester) as well as the SGPA, the total marks obtained in that semester and credit earned in the semester concern. The final grade sheet, on completion six semesters, shall include the SGPA of six semesters, CGPA, letter grade, the marks obtained, total marks and the total credits earned.

The University provides various learner-support services through a network of Learner Support Centres. A list of Learner Support Centres along with the subjects offered is enclosed. These centres cover all the districts of the State & are located at convenient points connected by public transport. A Learner Support Centres is placed under the supervision of a coordinator to be monitored by the Governing Body through the Principal of the College, and assisted by the staff of his office. It provides all kind of Learner Support Services.

At the beginning of each session, Learner Support Centres invite the learners for an induction meeting where they are familiarized with the aims, objectives and activities of the University and the methodology of Open Distance Learning.

The Learner Support Centres draw schedules of counselling sessions and notify the same for the learners. Normally, the counselling sessions are held during weekends and periods of vacation of the host institutions.

For Prospectus, SLMs, Assignments, Information etc. learners should contact the Learner Support Centres.

In short, each Learner Support Centres acts as the day-to-day link between the learner and the University. Learners are expected to conduct themselves in a worthy and dignified manner to maintain high academic and moral standards.

Is it compulsory for me to attend counselling?

The counselling sessions are not compulsory for theory courses. However, it is advised to attend the session as far as possible, in future which will be immensely useful in certain respects to share your views on the subject with your counsellors and fellow learners; comprehend some of the complex ideas/concepts or difficult issues discussed in your materials, and get clarifications for many of your doubts which you would not have solved yourself.

How do I know about counselling schedule?

Your Learner Support Centre will inform you about the counselling schedule. Normally counselling would be held on Saturday and Sunday. You should contact your Learner Support Centre coordinator for the counselling schedule.

Why should I do assignments, are the assignments compulsory?

If I cannot complete my programme in three years what will be the fate of submitted assignments?
